GOOD, IF TRUE.—The Alta of last Tuesday has information that four companies of men are to be raised to operate against the Indians in this section of the State, the whole to be under command of Major Curtis. This is just what we want. The companies can be easily raised in the Northern coast counties, and Trinity county; and, under such an arrangement, with Major Curtis to command, we venture the opinion that an end to our Indian troubles, which would be a final end, would soon follow. We hope our members will help the matter along all they can.
