

ALL RIGHT.—We learn from Mr. Gilkey, who arrived on Tuesday from Long Valley, that the noted Indian, Lassux, was in the hands of the whites at Fort Seward. He is probably in the spirit land before this. He was the head of the band taken from the vicinity of Fort Baker, last summer, to Smith River Reservation. Not liking the grub set before him there by father Hanson, he led his band back to the land of pork and beef. He will need no "cast-off garments" at the reservation he now inhabits.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

EURÉKA, HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1863.

Business Directory.

E. L. WALLACE.
PALENT WINE-SHOP, &c., East of Ferry Park, N. Y.

The Story of Life.

IN SIX CHAPTERS.
BY J. OAK O. SIX.

Ward Beecher Put to the Test.

The New York Herald of October 11th has the following:

According to the statement of Robert
V. Wessenden, late sergeant-major of the 1st Regiment, Col. Sherman's Legion, (formerly of the old Sixty-ninth), published in one of the Californians in the Rebel Service.

The Los Angeles Star gives the following list of former residents of California
now in the rebel service:

Almon R. Kelly, commanding the 1st Regiment, late soldiers of General A. S. J. for peace, in one of the New Orleans

Prayers for Peace.

The only place in the country where there is public notice of special prayers for the country, among Catholics is in New Orleans. We noticed, some time ago, the offering of a solemn High Mass