

HIS WHEREABOUTS.—Geiger, Vincent
E., (the ubiquitous,) has been heard from again. A one-horse newspaper in Yreka, called the Journal, informs its readers that the aforesaid passed through Salt Lake recently on his way to Dixie.
That's news to the people around here.
Some of our Republican friends are willing to take an oath that he is in the hills west of Red Bluff. Moreover, they never see a Democrat riding out of town, either on horseback, or in a buggy, without uttering their belief that he is taking out provisions and liquor to Geiger.

Red Bluff Beacon

ni-weekly Journal, devoted to Politics, Literature, Education, Agriculture, General Intelligence, &c., &

RED BLUFF, TEHAMA COUNTY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1864.

TIPTON & BURTON

NEATH & BOARMA

The Beginning.

Can any man tell me when the begin-

Signification of County Names

Alameda—A row or walk of elms; T)