

INDIAN RESERVATION.—Among some statistics published in yesterday's Inquirer, taken from Col. Henly's report of Indian affairs under his control, we find the following:

“A calculation, based upon the best data within the reach of the agent, shows an aggregate of sixty-one thousand Indians within his jurisdiction. Ten thousand of these have been gathered upon reserves, with some reasonable hope of advantage to them

Butte

Record

TY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1857.

NUM

d, and are doing wickedly? Do you not value How my love enough to endure a father's here, as frown for a short time?
off his 'I value your love more than life.

Sacramento Correspondence.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 9, 1857.
The caucus for Friday evening has just adjourned (forty-two out of those present

A GAMBLING MURDER.—One of those terrible death tragedies, says the Mariposa Ga- zette, which falls within our province, to record but too often in this county, took place

PRIVATE COINAGE.— appeared in the S. F. Pricount made by the bau-
age, contains the fol-
"The ten dollar dice-