
INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.—Mr. Howk, Humboldt mail carrier, sends us word, says the Weaverville Journal, that a cow was shot by Indians at Simpson's ranch, on the Humboldt trail, a few days since. The Indians came close to the house to accomplish their purpose. The Indians sent to the Reservation last Winter are back to their old haunts again, and more fiendish and daring in their depredations. Unless immediate steps are taken to check them, we shall again be cut off from all communication with the coast, and have to record acts of murder and pillage as of old.
