

KLAMATH.—The body of Mr. Brandreth, said to have had a son residing in this county, was found in Salmon river. The Indians caught the murderer—an Indian—and delivered him at Orleans Bar, where he was tried and made to find the body, which was discovered in the river, weighed down with rocks. Saunders has completed a bridge across Klamath, at the mouth of Salmon river, worth $3000.—Californian.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1859.