
MORE TROUBLE AMONG THE INDIANS.—Mr. Joseph Rogers, of the Express, informs us that the miners on Cottonwood have been after the Indians up the Klamath to the Cave, and that in an attempt to rescue a lot of stolen animals, four Indians were killed. When our informant left, the party had not returned. We understand that these Indians have some very fine stock which they have stolen within the last few months from the inhabitants of our valleys.
--Yreka Herald.

OD DAILY

MORNING, JANUARY 23, 1854.

Y BUSINESS CARDS.

WOOD & KENYONS

FURNITURE WAREROOMS.

FURNITURE WAREROOMS.