

Indian War-claim Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of Hydesville, held on the 20th inst., Orson Knight was appointed Chairman and W. S. Barnum, Sec'y.

On motion of Hon. E. L. Davis, it was Resolved, That we, the citizens of Hydesville, deem it expedient for each and every precinct in this county to hold meetings for the purpose of making out claims for time, money, provisions and stock, lost by Indians for the last two years, and to elect delegates to carry the amounts of the accounts to Eureka, on the first Tuesday in February, so that the whole amount may be condensed and forwarded to our Representatives in the Legislature, asking them to demand of the State the amount of said claims.

On motion, Mr. Wright was appointed delegate for this precinct.

Moved, that a copy of these proceedings be forwarded to the HUMBOLDT TIMES for publication.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

O. KNIGHT, Chm'n.

W. S. BARNUM, Sec.

YOUTH: "O, what shall give me the first lift to regain what I have lost?"
"I will."
YOUTH: "Who are you?"
YOUTH: "I am your mother. Who are you?"
YOUTH: "I have suffered as deeply as you ever did. I know what it is to suffer."
YOUTH: "I say I can give you the first lift. I mean by that I can show you the way. Follow my counsel, and you may yet recover all that you have lost."
YOUTH: "No, no, not all. O, there is one loss I can never make up."
YOUTH: "And as he spoke he bowed his head and covered his face with his hands."
YOUTH: "Let not such feelings be with you now. I dare not carry you to my house. But I am satisfied now. I have not doubted you, but I would prove you. And now if you please you may inform Mrs. Swan that you will board with her no more. She will not be disappointed. For I have spoken with her on the subject."
YOUTH: "With these words, Mr. Williams left the store, and as soon as Charles could recover from the strange emotions that had almost overpowered him, he called for the porter to come and lock up, and then having locked up the great safe, he took his departure."
YOUTH: "On the next morning he came to the store, and when his employer came to inform him that he had given his notice to Mrs. Swan."
YOUTH: "Very well," returned the merchant. "This evening..."
