THE NEWS TRUMS OF CHARLES

Indian Arrans in California.—In the report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, How J. W. Denver, we find embedied the report of Col. Henly, giving the condition of the Indians of California. Col. Henly says that universal peace prevalls among the tribely throughout the State, and that the progress of the religious of the Indians could wish for. Among other facts, he Indians could wish for among other facts, he Indians could wish for the servation raised over ten thousand bushes of wheat and that the work was done by Indians having only two white men an overseers. On the reservations in the southern part of the State the drought has injured the crops. Five reservations have been established. Sebastian or Tejon. Klamath, Nome-Lackse, Mendooing, and Fresno farm, on which about 11,239 Indians have been colonized.

How, a Man Reale in a Lion's Grash.
The celebrated traveler Dr. Livingstone, in his recently published volume entitled Missions.
Ty Travels and Researches in South Africa, gives a curling description of his sensations when in the grasp of an cornged lion. The whole story is interesting, as well for its narrative as for its psychological remarks. The writer says:
