

NOT GONE.—The Bark Fanny Major, which took the Indian prisoners on board of her last Sunday, in view of going to sea next day, is still in the Bay. The heavy nor-west winds which have prevailed this week, have kept the bar too rough for heavy vessels to cross it.

