

We learn that four Indians from the Peninsula opposite Eureka, have volunteered their services and been accepted by Gen. Kibbe, to go in search of Redwood Indians. "Set a rogue to catch a rogue" is an old motto, and it applies with equal force to catching Indians; they frequently leave signs in their trails when traveling to keep out of the way of the whites, which are intended to designate certain things to their comrades, and can only be understood by Indians. In such cases Indians make serviceable allies.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

NO. 23.

EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1859.

AGRICULTURE.

How to Use a Harrow. The following is a translation of the best of the following from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

We all know that it is of great benefit to

to have our harrows in good order and to use them in the proper manner

is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

We all know that it is of great benefit to

to have our harrows in good order

and to use them in the proper manner

is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

We all know that it is of great benefit to

to have our harrows in good order

and to use them in the proper manner

is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

We all know that it is of great benefit to

to have our harrows in good order

and to use them in the proper manner

is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

We all know that it is of great benefit to

to have our harrows in good order

and to use them in the proper manner

is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

It is a translation of the best of the following

from the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

of the London News presented to the

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER.

Published every Saturday Morning, at the Office, Corner of F and Second Sts.

Subscription Terms.

One year, in advance, for one dollar.

Three months, in advance, for fifty cents.

Single copies, for each subsequent week.

Advertisements, as usual.

Published by J. W. B. & Co.

Eureka, California, 1859.

Printed and Published by J. W. B. & Co.

Corner of F and Second Sts.

Eureka, California, 1859.

Printed and Published by J. W. B. & Co.

Corner of F and Second Sts.

Eureka, California, 1859.

Printed and Published by J. W. B. & Co.

Corner of F and Second Sts.

Eureka, California, 1859.

Printed and Published by J. W. B. & Co.

Corner of F and Second Sts.