

MILITARY.—The Sacramento correspondent of the San Francisco Fireman's Journal, says:

“The candidates are hot foot after Adjutant-General Kibbe's place. Thus far I learn that Adjutant General S. C. Ellis, on Major General Allon's Staff, 'is one of 'em'; also, Col. J. W. McKenzie, and Lieut. Col. A. J. Jackson; of the First Regiment Artillery, and Gen. Kibbe, of course. Major E. Sparrow Purdy is, I understand, also a candidate. Kibbe has been to work hard, and has been procuring signers among all the volunteers, recommending him. The office becomes vacant in April. It will be a lusty fight.”

Weekly Trinity Journal

Weekly Newspaper, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Liberty

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, JANUARY 30, 1864.

Society Notices

Professional Cards

Weekly Trinity Journal

Our Sacrifice

Age, No. 27, P. M. W. M.—Hold communications at Masonic Hall, Weaverville, of each month. Hour of meeting, six

J. CHADBOURNE      H. J. HOWE.
CHADBOURNE & HOWE,
Attorneys at Law.

Weaverville, Saturday, Jan. 30, 1864.

The Senate con-
have reported by