
BROWN'S HOTEL, February 2, 1852.

SIR: I herewith resign the office of Indian agent for California, which you did me the honor to confer upon me. For that honor I most sincerely thank you; and hoping that you may find for my successor a gentleman more worthy and competent for the discharge of the responsible duties of the office than myself, I am, sir, with sentiments of the highest respect, your obedient and humble servant,

G. W. BARBOUR.

His Excellency M. FILLMORE,
President of the United States.
