

Indian Commissioners.—The expedition of Indian Commissioners will probably set out the latter part of this week or the first of next. It is understood that the company of artillery at Sonoma will compose the escort.—Should necessity require, a still larger force will be dispatched; all the troops in the State and in Oregon, not required for garrison duty, are under orders to hold themselves in readiness to move immediately. It will be some time, however, before they will be able to complete their preparations.

STATE LAW.

AN ACT CONCERNING MARKS AND BRANDS.

1. Every person, being the owner of horses, mules, cattle, sheep, goats, or hogs, shall have and keep a mark and brand, different from the marks and brands of his neighbors, and the brand as far as practicable, or to the knowledge of such owner, shall be different from any other brands in the State, and the mark different from any other in the county.

2. Every such owner, shall deliver to the Recorder of his County a full description of his ear-mark, and present to him his branding iron, and said Recorder shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, giving the form of the iron in the record, and a full description of the earmark: Provided, that if said Recorder shall be satisfied that the mark or brand tendered to him for record is similar to another mark or brand in the county, he shall require of such person to CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY, Jan. 27.

IN SENATE.—After some unimportant business, Mr. Heydenfeldt, from the majority of the committee, to which was referred the bill concerning divorces, reported the same back to the Senate, and recommended that it be non-concurred in, on the ground that it is unconstitutional to legislate upon the subject.

Mr. Tingley, from the same committee, presented a minority report recommending the bill.

On motion of Mr. Van Buren they were ordered to lie on the table, and leave was granted to the minority of the Committee to present another report.

Mr. Heydenfeldt rose to a question of privilege, and read a protest against the action of the majority of the Senate in the case of Messrs. Van Buren and Fair, and asked that the same be spread upon the journals of the Senate. Granted.

On motion of Mr. Tingley, a select committee was appointed to unite with one from the House, to examine the accounts of the Comptroller and State Treasurer. Messrs. Crosby, Tingley and Van Buren were appointed.

The bill introduced by Mr. Hey-denfeldt, amendatory of the act pro-
