

in placing the capital again on wheels: ~~HOSTILE INDIANS.—The weather has~~ been so shockingly bad of late that even the Indians were obliged, in a great measure to cease their marauding expeditions.
They have however been practicing occasionally: the house of A. Rumphrey was robbed by them again recently. Mr. M.
J. Conklin informs us that the Indians still depredate upon the stock of the Mattole farmers.
Mr. C. Brehmer of Blue Slide, Mad-river, says that the Indians in that vicinity are heard shooting daily, and that they help themselves to beef and pork at pleasure.
This pleasant weather, with deep snow still on the mountains is a favorable time to operate against them. Our citizens are anxiously waiting the movements of Col. Lippitt.
