

Lost.—An Indian boy named "Major" strayed away, yesterday, about 1 p. m., and has not been found since. He is about six years of age, and thick set; has his hair cut short all around, and has a dark spot over the left eye. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by William Cameron.

SACRAMENTO DAILY UNION

SACRAMENTO, THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 10, 1859.

proceedings in civil cases. [The report on
c. 128 was by the majority of the committee.]
The Committee on Engrossment report ctly engrossed Assembly bill No. 76, 122, and The Committee on Enrollment report as enrolled Assembly bills No. 71, 87, and 110

ly upon its merits, and I am obliged to confess that I found so little merit in it that I was compelled to agree to the majority recommendation for its indefinite postponement. The existing law occupies the position of a Protector—if I may so call it—to the people who are compelled to purchase the necessaries of life. In small substitutes it stands between the compelled to attend the Supreme Court to argue a case.

On motion, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.
Messrs. ROBERTSON, THOMAS, SLOES and HANCOCK spoke on the subject of the bill.
The question being on the passage of the bill, it was

Board in the Chair.
Taylor.
Several
Finance Com
On motion