The Baker Eulogies in Congress.
On the 11th of December the death of Col. Baker was formally announced in the U. S. Senate by Mr. Mason of Ohio.

ward Dickinson Baker has been already made by a thousand eloquent pens. That record has been read in cabin and in hall, from Maine to furthest Oregon. I offer

Not! It may be called eulogies; self-sacrifice; but I who know the man who was the late Senator—the calm, self-possessed perfectness of his valor, and who have

The most brilliant mental efforts of his life are not upon record. The sudden bursts of his often matchless eloquence have passed away with the time and co-

daughters were indulgent fathers I would not die in sorrow or quiet
