

INDIAN TROUBLES.—The whites and Indians in the vicinity of Humboldt Bay are reported to be again at war. Thirteen of the Indians had been killed in one battle. The United States troops have been sent out against them on Eel river.

WEEKLY BUTTE RECORD

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 16, 1861.

ndow.
as I drew rein
almost proud
and coal-black in heavy and to Marguerite, but my eyes must have spoken volumes of approval.
That night, when I retired to rest, my dreams were not haunted by the heiress, but by the pale face I had seen at the window—

"My dear fellow," he began, "you are the victim of a little ruse. My sister-in-law has a mortal fear of falling a prey of some fortune-hunter, and when you, on your arrival, mistook her for the governess, she could not resist

Speech of Hon. S. A. Douglas.
We make some extracts from the speech of Mr. Douglas, delivered in the United States Senate, on the 3d of January:
The Senator from Ohio tells us he does