

DIGGER PARADISE.—A writer for the Beacon sustains Indian Agent Gelger in respect to the beastly condition of Nome Lakee Reservation. Diggers are innumerable—there are two squaw persons for every government servant, and the he-diggers are permitted to catch every vagabond grasshopper venturing on the Reservation. Gov. Weller ought to be ashamed of himself, to stick his gubernatorial bill into this aboriginal paradise.

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1859.

CITY DRUG STORE WEST SIDE MAIN ST., WEAVERVILLE, I AM NOW RECEIVING AND WILL KEEP	OPPOSITION LINE STEAMSHIPS! NEW-YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO Steamship Line! SEMI-MONTHLY, via PANAMA!	The Trinity Journal CALVIN B. McDONALD, Editor. WEAVERVILLE, CALIF. Saturday Morning, February 26, 1859.	Eloquence of It is hardly reasonable to distinguished for practical gold, should be remarked of eloquence or poetry. busy to listen; too intent o read except what relates to discovery. But one so cor
---	--	--	--