

INDIAN OUTRAGES.— A correspondent of the Humboldt Times says that the Indians have taken possession of the Bald Hill country in Humboldt county. He says the same bands of Indians sent to the Reservation after the Kibba campaign, are now murdering citizens, killing stock and destroying homes, and if some effectual remedy is not forthwith applied, the frontier settlements of the county will soon be depopulated.

