

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—Col. Black and
Maj. Wright with companies E and G, Sixth Regiment C. V.; Captains Green and Cook, left Ardata on Wednesday for the mountains. Company C of the same regiment, Capt. Buckley, have stationed sixteen men at Titlow's mill and the remainder at Baynton's prairie.

DESTRUCTION OF STOCK BY THE INDIANS.
Large numbers of stock, consisting of cattle, horses and mules, have been slaughtered of late, we are informed, by the Indians, on and in the immediate vicinity of Kneeland's prairie. These depredations are supposed to have been committed by the same band that made the raid upon Captain Dyer's a few days since.
