

Indian Depredations — The delay in taking steps to suppress Indian hostilities is affording the dingers a fine opportunity to lay in feed enough to last them until grass seed ripens. On Thursday of last week they killed four head of stock for Cave Bros., at Blue Bend on Mad river. As is usual when they attack a band of cattle, many more were wounded than killed. Cave started out on Monday last and will no doubt find many more missing when he arrives.

