

THE KLAMATH VOLUNTEERS.—Col. Harper, of Klamath, has prepared an estimate of the expenses incurred by the volunteers called out by him in Klamath county, under the orders of the Governor, and has laid it before the Senate Committee on Indian affairs. Col. H. has been very strenuous in urging the claims of those volunteers, and is exerting himself to procure some adequate compensation for their services.

Downfall.—An exchange paper says that
