

"At the Nome Lackee Reservation an immense quantity of grain has been sown this year, the yield of which is estimated, provided the season proves favorable, and thus far it has been, at 40,000 bushels."

It is expected that this year's Digger crop will be considerably lighter than that of several previous years.

EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1859.

W. G. CALIFORNIA STEAM

and Arrival of Humboldt Mail.

Notes Reference
As Intended