

INDIAN HOSTILITIES.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill to call out a volunteer company for services in Klamath county, not to exceed fifty men, and to make the necessary appropriation for the same, Mr. Oxley in the chair.

Mr. Beatty opposed the passage of the bill.

Mr. Ricks said the Indian hostilities in that part of the State were of a most serious character, and considered that even that force was insufficient.

After some further debate the bill passed, was sent to the Senate, and passed that body the same day as reported above.

Bill to settle the boundary line between Humboldt and Klamath passed, and on the next day, March 5th, upon motion of Mr. Ricks, was re-considered, and referred to the delegation from Klamath and Humboldt.

A bill to amend the act to establish the salaries of the Judges of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Judicial Districts passed. A Bill to amend the act to regulate fees in office so far as regards the county of Klamath was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Ricks introduced a concurrent resolution instructing our Senators and Representatives in Congress to urge the passage of a law establishing a mail route from San Francisco to Humboldt Bay. Laid over under the rules.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

AN INDEPENDENT WEEKLY PUBLISHED BY PERLBERG, FRANK, SECRETARY, HUMBOLDT, VAN DYKE & WILSON, 22- OMEGA, NORTH SIDE OF THE PRAIRIE.

EDMANS.

Repeating in arrears for one year, he for six months for a less time, one dollar per month.

As an advertisement to advertisers, we will not be responsible for the contents of any advertisement, where the advertiser is not responsible for the contents of any advertisement, where the advertiser is not responsible for the contents of any advertisement.

A Home Pickers—Old Mr.

An old man sat by the chimney-side, and he had a long pipe in his mouth, and he was smoking it, and he was looking at the clock, and he was looking at the clock, and he was looking at the clock.

Left the Lister Store. This expression, says the Baltimore Patriot, is attributed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and we refer to it that we may mark our condemnation of those dangerous words so fittingly uttered. It matters not on what occasion, they were uttered; it matters not on what contingencies they were heard; they are treasurable in their essence, and they are to meet with the sternest reprobation from all who desire to maintain the honor and glory of the just and free-republican government.

Well, this is a pretty job for one of those "poor devils" in an excited tone of voice, he said the other day, "I have seen the best of the people, and walking off to another part of the temple, and walking off to another part of the temple, and walking off to another part of the temple."

When remained at the counter. At length he said to her, "You need not stand there, my dear, I am going to pay for your running a job. It is hard enough to lose my material and customer. In justice you should pay me for the rest; but there is no hope of that, so I will wait off, and never let me see you again."

Ellen made no reply; she turned round, and asked her hands to her forehead, and looking into a flood of tears, walked slowly away.

After Ellen had gone, Mr. Lister returned to the front part of the store, and taking up the vest, brought it back to where an elderly man was sitting, and holding it towards him, said by the way of apology for the part he had taken in the little scene, "I had a beautiful article for a gentleman to wear for a winter, which I had made up for you, and the ladies after a pause, which I refused to pay her as a matter of reticence. She knew she could not make the garment, whether she took it away, or she will be upon yourself, as a good specimen upon customer tailor as a good specimen."

"Perhaps," said the elderly gentleman, in a mild way, "I should have been more than take a job that required greater skill than the possession. She certainly looked very well, and I am sure she would have been a great asset to your store, and I am sure she would have been a great asset to your store, and I am sure she would have been a great asset to your store."

He who first seriously contemplated a serious age of the confederated States was a senator in his heart, and became more and more thoughtful in his language, would have been thought of as a man of a high order of mind, and a man of a high order of mind, and a man of a high order of mind.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.

My dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind and flattering letter, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well, and I am glad to hear that you are doing so well.