

TROOPS AT YAGER.—The Humboldt Times says: Lieut. Lynn with a detachment of troops for some time past on South Eel river, has been ordered to Yager Creek to punish the Indians in that vicinity, for the outrages recently committed by them at Larrabee's. We hope the Lieut., with his detachment of thirty men, may be successful in chastising the murderers.

Butte Record

BUTTE RECORD.

MORNING, MARCH 23, 1861.

NO. 2

Ring. Balmorals of	ring here, so I ordered out the vessel and the cats and spun along like ninny-pence for it!" "I shall be very glad to restore the ring I was unfortunate enough to find when I can	embracing in rapturous gratitude over the precious relic of that one lost to them so lately. Was that dear one not lost but transformed? Had the silver-haired patriarch of	would go and be an ancient mariner. With this desperate resolve he sought boarding house, put a clean shirt and collar, a cotton valise, and started for the river.
-----------------------	---	---	---