

The Indians about Shasta have again commenced their depredations and murders. They have recently attacked several trains, and murdered several men, among the number Lieut. Russell, of the U. S. A. These rascals need such a brushing again as they got last fall.