

KILLED BY INDIANS.—The Shasta Courier learns that on Sunday, the 24th ult., an old man named Fullwider and three companions were out hunting in Trinity county, when they were attacked by Indians, and Mr. Fullwider killed. His companions sought safety in a cabin which they barricaded, and a company of men had gone from Weaverville to their rescue. Mr. F. was formerly a resident of Rockbridge county, Virginia.

