

INDIAN TROUBLE IN EL DORADO.—The Coloma Republican says that a band of Indians lately visited a mining camp above Volcanoville, El Dorado county, drove the miners out of their cabins, and took possession of some four or five hundred dollars worth of provisions, and all the pistols and guns they could find. The people in the vicinity of Grey Eagle and Volcanoville, some fifty in number, have started in pursuit of the Indians.

