the have been killed lately by hostile Indians in the Eel river and Yager creek settlements. About two weeks since a pair of oxen, belonging to Mr. Hiram Lyons, three miles from Hydesville, were driven from within fifty yards of his house to a distance of a mile and killed. Mr. Simmons has had several head of cows killed but a short distance from Hydesville.

APRIL 18, 1861 SATURDAY HUMBOLDT COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, EUREKA,

Businesa Wirectory.		Cen
E. L. WALLKOR,	I becoch thee, I entrast thee,	AN INCIDEN
SALER IN WINES, LIQUORS, 40, Kant side the Plane Arieta		The long
For public amusement, he has two of Pha-	Watering, waiting, heping, yearsing,	content had
E.17	With my lamp well trimmed and barning !	out the who
EMPIRE SALDON,	Intereding	many sect
orner Front-and G streets, Euroka,		threstoned
ed and elogratity fitted up, is again open	Wounds upon thy hands and side,	thousand.
the public, where the understrand will be	Thee best suffered, they hast died.	seeing er
the Public, generally.	ď	then either the BALK will, at all times, be well supplied to the choloses wires, LIQUORS and CI-	_	Kensia, Pa
188, to be purchased in the State.	If my feeble prayer out much thee,	riotic Cin
4-13	O my Sarior, I becoun thee,	To the second
DOCUMENT OF LAND	Witness are those heart along the man	ρ.

PHENIX EXCHANGE.

His rooms are well ventilated, and fitted up oretally, that he has thoroughly renorated and steel or the "Plant Exchange," as a smylled rith the best this and San recibes in which and San recibes in which an afford. Thankful for past favors, the Proprietor would recordedly inform his friends and the public the most commodious yie. H. S. SOULK, Proper

Breakfast, from half past, fire to seren

BAY HOTEL,

BONT ST., NEAR THE CITY WHARE, ue but the most choise, articles in the line of equore and Cigner.
Second story is Resly fitted up for lodgings.
Sereks, July 14, 1880. Burshs, will be found open at all remons-bours. The Saloon is supplied with two denifie Summit Tother, and the Tother Polytons

o TERMS, TO SUIT THE TIMES. -IQUORS and CIGARS

uning of H and First strosis, having had the more had you will have a shifted, painted and half had been to have a shifted an answers to the hading the resistant that he will be propared to receive a large of their partons, or Kenkly, that he ight partons a large of their partons, and Konday the light the second of their partons, and Konday the light the second of their partons.

OF THE CAMADIAN REPOLUteral Windeld Scotts

Let me follow where thou leadest, het me, thether m. mos book Life to one who sake to live, Die, if dylng I may give ... And more nearly . . .

-- Golden Legend. Dying thus, resemble thee !.

Bachelor's Hall, what a quare looking, pince Sure: but I think what a burnin' diagrace If is, Never at all to be gettin's. wife! Kape me from such all the days of my Mel "Bachelor's Hall." 1 10

Now, like a hog in the mortar-bed wallowing. See the old bechelor, gloomy and sad anough, Now it tipe over-St. Patrick he's mad snough, If he were present, to fight with the 'Bquire. Placing his tay-kitch over-the are;

Awk'ard enough, see him knesdin'-his dough; Troth, if his breach he could see without swal-A plate wanted washin'-the cat was just How it would favor his palate, you know !. The Proprietor of the BAY HOTEL, His dish-cloid is missing -the pigs are of H and First street, having had the In the purmit he hes hattared had all rourin' it i lete in yed load therein, used the mostly arms arms peorted in furniture boxes, so, you evening pa

of the same period in the latter State. in a suit of plain clothes, while ranged I had taken a very source interest in along down on either hand were several the beinging conside, and the "Canadian officers of the Haised States same and Congress," assembled in an obscure cel. one of them—a stout hard-featured man. in a brilliant uniform I set down at once at Major General Scott.
General McLeod smiled, and nedded partie, as

माठ द्या

He ran b familiarly to me as I entered, and the seak near him being all filled, he pointed with his to one near the force of the long table, late, which I introduced myself without further coremony, and commenced playing knift and fork with pective.

It was late in the season when I was Congress," seembled in an obscure cel-lar in Cleveland, Ohio, had rewarded my see, by making me a captain in the Can-present command

adian navy, with the

of a little fore and aft schooner, and that of a first-class line-of-battle abip in prossent to Buffalo with my vessel, for the

I observed during supper, this the off-cers towards the head of the table eyed the patrick general and myself very sus-piciously; but no word was spoken to ished my supper in silence, when a dootor, who was seated next to me, and with By the exercise of some little tact on | whom I was intimately acquainted, askpurpose of receiving six old bran aix commenced pounders, which were to constitute the the others schooners battery when the war was fairly began, and a considerable quantity core toward ty of ammunition, together with three hundred muskets, dragoons outlance, be used by the patriot army, in the west and platein, ad in fritting, which were to to commence the war with.

Thunder and ture! what a nickle ha's in!

courin, it

d dead

My Willes divine, to invest the sail hav, hance or spirit. But come up and take whater gradually neared the udied in divine, to invest the salemons are some and page for the comments and said the comments are comments and said the comments and said the comments are comments and said the comments are comments and said the comments and said the comments are comments and said the comments are comments and comments are comments and comments are comments and comments are copposed to comments are comments and comments are comments are com whole extent forth through—don't get at your secret.

The state of the two privates are the state of the stat or, and establish a model ripplish American by will you " and the noment the very spon approaching neares to the which every American liberator was to selected with a few military it became clear had the theorems and the ripplish to select the state of the select the spon arrival could be spon of the selected to the see we're all safe, general."

"Yes, it would seem not bot fook out upon a voyage to the Polar Sees. Nother that Old Londy's Lane, "sa yes call him, ing seeserist in said to have uccurred to In the spring of the year 1840, a whal-A Tale of the Arctic Rughant.

And such Teon's ere the ceilin ed upon a mat, and apparently adopted the certin Upon trouching the animal it was found and them to be dead and the body from to the and I he tardness of stone. Entering the eating to that p stromen ed an ex apon the new consent to that soldiery spot.

She was a corpse f and in that apparently resigned and religious attitude, had been frozen to death. Beside her was a up for a long period of time. Describeding to the cabin, the first object that was seen, was a large Newfoundlased dog collat a table ; her eyes were open and grabrother of the roung tady and commander of the brig. He, too, was dead, but satting at the table, and before him by a deavored since resterday morning to there was next seen a young lady seafed sheet of paper; upon which was written young man, who, it appeared, was the the following words: "Our cook has en-

og po