

A Good Move.—As will be seen by reference to our Eel River correspondence, the settlers over there are taking steps to organize an Independent Company. We understand that the application alluded to, has been presented to the County Judge, and that he has granted an order appointing J. E.
Davis, in Eel River, to open a book for enrolling names, and has also fixed a day for the election of officers for said company.— This prompt action should be imitated by this place and the lower end of the Bay.
