

STILL AT IT.— We learn that the Indians killed and crippled about ten head of cattle belonging to E. L. Davis, one day last week. The damage was done near where the detachment of U. S. soldiers were camped, but we learn that the troops did not follow the Indians, as they were not supplied with but three days rations.

