

THE FARTHEST WEST.—We learn that a party from the Mendocino Reservation, some ways below Mendocino Cape, went up recently and planted the American flag on the point of the Cape. This is the farthest west of any that now waves over American soil.

