

The Cost.—Gen. Kibbe has made a report to the Governor, stating that the total expense of the Humboldt war was $39,884-86. There are three wounded men under medical attendance, and the State should take care of these.

Sonoma County Journal

ETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1859.

ed the little gate and we walked cottage. I thought the loveliest had ever seen. Roses were every-na roses covered the walls, peeped windows, and coquetted with the could not shake off. As I neared the cottage, my presentiment of dread increased. The door was open; as I crossed the vestibule I trembled so violently that I could hardly open the parlor door, but I did open it, and there

LOCAL LAWS.

Below we give several laws passed by the present Legislature, having special reference after that time five cents per ton; of vessels to be computed as by provided that said assigns shall right and power to charge and size of toll not to exceed the