"News of the State: Pitt River Indians." The Placer Herald, May 2, 1857: p. 1, col. 6.

Pirr River Indians.—S. R. Rockhart writes from Yroka, April 21st, that the party who had started in pursuit of Indians had had two battles with them, one at Hot Springs and the other ton miles above the forey-on the East Fork of the Pitt River. Nincteen Indians had been killed, and many more wounded. Twenty-three prisoners had been taken, but the most of them were squaws and children and were released again.

Scanned by KJD - 2009 1 of 2

"News of the State: Fit River Indians." The Property Herald May 2 1857: p. 1, col. st. 2	High Parity and the Control of the color of
	The number of the state of the
CATITORNIA WAY 2
THE COUNTY AUBURN. PLACER COUNTY.	more reported, then in the Ruck State and Tre- tifucial. Iman nature why to be received at the beautiful ride and the fifth in the first of the beautiful ride and the state and classifus open. The good and the tree are that as of mindle or better in full companions his published, setting forth the reporter of this State and the Turtifucire on the burth relating to their out climate, septembries and common ted. Allot why hold and reliable information on the mental machinest. Burth solid and reliable information on the mental machinest. Burth solid and reliable distribution and mental solid the state of the Turtifucire on the mental solid the state of the Turtifucire on the mental solid the state of the Turtifucire on the mental solid the state of the Turtifucire of the mental solid the state of the Turtifucire of the solid the case to said this great and good work— that is not to such that the treat of the stage and the case to said this great and good work— and the state of the Committee of the stage of the Committee of the Committee of the stage of the Committee of the Committee of the stage of the Committee of the Committee of the stage of the Committee of the Committee of the stage of the st
	The Statement of Historical Control of the control
OLUMB 5	THE PLACER HERALD THE PLACER HE