

SLAUGHTER OF INDIANS.—The Red Bluff Bea

con, of April 27th, has the following account of the inhuman massacre of Indian women and children. The savages themselves could teach those men lessons in humanity :

A party of citizens left Antelope on Thursday last in search of Indians, who had, a few days before, stolen a number of horses from that vicinity. The Indians were discovered on Thursday evening, and the fight immediately commenced. We do not know whether or not it was the intention to commence an indiscriminate slaughter upon discovering them, but we do know, from all that we are able to learn, that the fight resulted most inhumanly, killing in all fourteen. We are informed by some of the party, that most of the killed were women and children, only one "buck" having been killed, and two wounded.
