

FROM THE TROOPS.—We have not heard from Lieut. Collins' command this week, but it is safe to conclude his men are not idle. We publish elsewhere extracts from a note written by Capt. Underwood to Capt. Lovell, showing that those under his command have taken the field in high spirits. The Capt. feels confident they will give a good account of themselves if an occasion offers. We are truly glad to learn that the volunteers and regulars cooperate so cordially in the present campaign against the digger tribes in this section of the State. Their continued depredations have seriously blighted our prospects and it is of the first importance they should be driven from their present haunts. All now see the absolute necessity of this, and those in command especially; hence the spirit manifested by the troops in taking the field against them.

Monday. We are informed that...
