

KILLED BY INDIANS.—The Marysville Express, learns from Capt. Bird, recently arrived from Honey Lake Valley, that two men, named Pete Lassen and Clapper, were killed by Indians, on the 26th ult., near Mud Lake. A party of seven men left Honey Lake Valley, the latter part of April, and started for Mud Lake, in search of silver mines. The company soon separated, four going in one direction and three in another with the intention of meeting at Mud Lake. When about twenty-five miles this side of the lake, the party of three, saw Indians, one of whom they got into their camp, but were not able to get any information from him as to the whereabouts of the other company, and he was suffered to depart. Clapper was anxious to leave the place, but the other two, Lassen and a man named Wyatt, thought there was no danger, and they concluded to remain. They then wrapped their blankets around them and lay down to sleep. About daylight they were attacked by a large body of Indians who shot Clapper and Lassen, killing them instantly, but Wyatt succeeded in catching Lassen's horse, which he mounted and made his escape. He reached Honey Lake after traveling four days without food, and riding all the way bare-back. The party of four, which was known as Capt. Weatherlow's party, have not been heard from since, and it is supposed they have shared the fate of Clapper and Lassen.
