

INDIAN TROUBLES.—The Indians, coastward, are very troublesome, and hardly a week passes that we are not informed of depredations committed by them. The troops stationed in that section are in search of the rascals, and are determined on exterminating them.

ornia, Saturday, May 11, 1861.