

NOME CULT.—The Red Bluffs Beacon is informed that on this reservation, there are nearly four thousand Indians collected, and that they have sown five hundred acres of wheat, and there are three hundred head of stock on the premises.

