

EIGHT INDIANS KILLED.—News was received in town yesterday that the detachment of ten men, which Lieut. Collins sent down Eel river to mouth of Larabee creek, on Wednesday night of last week, had made an attack on a ranch of Indians and killed eight. The troops under the immediate command of Lieut. Collins, composed of volunteer guides and regulars, are doing good service and if there were enough of them they would soon produce a permanent peace.

