

FARM IN HOOPA.—We learn that the idea of establishing an Indian farm in Hoopa has been abandoned. So it should.

THE HUMBOLDT TIMES.

HUMBOLDT, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, MAY 19, 1855.

THE WHOLE EXTENT OF THE CAPITAL IN WASHINGTON

The whole extent of the capital in Washington when completed, will be seven hundred and fifty-one feet four inches in length, including the steps, three hundred and fifty-four feet, with the wings one hundred and forty-two feet long; width of old capital, three hundred fifty-two feet four inches; area of ground, originally one hundred and forty-three thousand and one hundred and twelve feet; or more than three hundred and thirty acres; height of the proposed new dome, above the base, one hundred and forty-six feet.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE TERRITORY

The organization of the Territory, which has been the subject of much discussion, is now being administered from 1847 to 1852. It is in nature a small, thin man, capable of great mental endurance. In his own position he will doubtless enjoy the confidence of Cabernet and re- spectably independent. 13,279 feet tall, on himself and the President, who appointed him.
