

General Kibbe left for Washington on the overland stage, of Monday. He goes under the direction of the Governor to present before Congress the claims constituting our Indian War debt, amounting to some $450,000. He takes with him the necessary vouchers, etc.

