

MORE HUMBOLDT INDIAN TROUBLES.—A gentleman arriving from Humboldt, recently, states, says the Tribune Journal, that one Ellison was killed by Indians, a few days ago, at Iroquois Rancho. Ellison was a Missourian. Fifty head of stock had been stolen from the north fork of Yager creek. With no further information, we suppose that the Indians have made their way back, and that a war of extermination will ensue.

DAILY UNION

MORNING, MAY 24, 1859.

is written by Gilbert I. Parker, of the Democratic Review; gives the fol- clerk Serdy to the Court the whole or part of the