

INDIANS KILLED.—A letter to Mr. B. Adams, from South Fork Eel river, says that a party of settlers in that vicinity turned out a few days since to chastise Indians for killing stock; they found the Indians implicated and killed fifteen.

