

INDIAN SUPERINTENDENT MALTBY. We learn from a letter received from Mr. C. A. Murdock that Superintendent Maltby arrived at Round Valley Indian Reservation, on the 20th instant, which place he had visited for the purpose of receiving the Reservation property, to be turned over by his predecessor, Mr. Wiley. This done, he will go to Mendocino and thence to San Francisco. The Smith River and Hoopa Valley Reservations will be next visited for a like purpose.
