

INDIANS.—John Carr arrived from Hay Fork on Thursday with the news that Indians have again appeared in the valley, and that the citizens are preparing to go in pursuit of them. It is just as we feared. Where the red prowlers came from no one as yet knows, but it is entirely probable that they are on "leave of absence" from the Hoopa Reservation.

Trinity Hour

per, Independent in Politics, and Devoted to the Advancement of Home Interests

WEAVERVILLE, CALIFORNIA, MAY 27, 1865.

Sellers, B.I.	Special Notices MRS. S. A. ALLEN,	Weekly Trinity Journal. All County Warrants and Greenbacks taken at at their retail value in payment for subscriptions to this	[The following beautiful and touching were penned by Sallie Goodrich Thayer, of Ilem, Oregon, for the Oregon Statesman:] The Dead President.
------------------	---	---	---