

A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT.—On the disbandment of Company C, "Mountaineers," Sergeant John Alexander was made the recipient of a gold-mounted Henry's sixteen-shooter, as a mark of the high esteem in which he was held by the enlisted men of the Company. It is the most beautifully mounted "shooting-iron" we have ever seen, and a death-dealing keepsake of which Alex. is, and should be, proud, the circumstances considered.

For many years we've waited
To hail the day of peace,
When our land should be united
And war and strife should cease
And now that the day approaches
The drums are beating fast,
