

INDIAN AFFAIRS. Lt. Beale, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs in this State, is on his way hither, and may be expected to arrive sometime during the present month, via Walker's Pass. From the law concerning Indian reservations we make the following extract:

That the President of the United States is authorized to make five military reservations from the public domain in the State of California, or the territories of Utah and New Mexico bounding on said State for Indian purposes. Provided that such reservations shall not contain more than 25,000 acres. That such reservations shall not be made upon any lands inhabited by citizens of California, and the sum of $250,000 is hereby appropriated to defray the expense of subsisting the Indians in California, and removing them to said reservations for protection.

The reservations in the Southern part of the State will be selected upon the arrival of Mr. Beale, and the immediate agency in connection with the details of the management being entrusted to B. D. Wilson, Esq., of this city. A synopsis of Mr. Wilson's plan for the government of the Indians was published in this paper last winter, and if it is carried out will ensure the welfare of the Indians and the security of the whites living upon our frontiers.
