Fandango.—We find in the Argus an account of a "social re-union" among the Digger tribes of El Dorado. Los Americanos had to fork over four reals to see the sport. The Indians consisted of both sexes from Placerville, Mud Springs, Cosumnes, Kelsey and Coloma, and were rigged out in their fantastic garb. The first part of the performance was a feast, after which the head chief made a lengthy speech, which was listened to with attention. After the speech, each chief gathered around him his tribe, and then commenced the dancing and singing, which was kept up until a late hour, with a great degree of interest and decorum, much to the satisfaction of themselves and the spectators.—Sac. Union.
Policy should embrace not less the distant Future than the urgent Present.—Franklin

A, CALIFORNIA
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1854.

Stiles’, w Book & Music Store, moved.
Building formerly occupied by J. P. Park, Cor. Broad & Pine Streets.

Johannes in Search of a Wife.
Chapter 1—Shewing how Johannes fell in love with Catherina.

Sturdy, firm of foot, thrifty, and amorous, withal, is Johannes Schmidt, and, if report speaks truly, he has,

Revenue Act.

The following is Section 10th of art. 4th of the new Revenue Law passed by the last Legislature:

Every person who shall sell or vend any goods, wares or merchan-